PROJECT-BASED LEARNING IN SCHOOLS

Project-based Learning [PBL] is a dynamic approach to teaching in which students explore real-world problems and challenges. With this type of active and engaged learning, students at the secondary level are inspired to obtain a deeper knowledge of the subjects they are studying. The Board has brought out a new publication, Project-based Learning in Schools for Classes IX and X for use by teachers to support the teaching- learning process.

Revised Publications:

The book, Guidelines for Project Work in Accounting and Practical Work in Computerized Accounting, in the subject, Accountancy for class XII, has been revised to support skills development.

Environmental Education - Teachers' Manual, Classes I – V consists of activities that provide diverse and meaningful experiences to the students about their environment and also nurture their critical-thinking and problem-solving skills.

Environmental Education- Teachers' Manual, Classes VI – VIII consists of activities based on various themes related to environment that can be performed by employing simple tools and techniques in the school premises under the supervision of the teacher.

These publications brought out by the Board are available in the following format:

Title	Availability/format
Project-based Learning for Schools for Classes IX and X	Soft copy
Guidelines for Project Work in Accounting and Practical Work in Computerized Accountancy, Class XII (Revised edition)	Soft copy
Environmental Education-Teachers' Manual Classes I – V (Revised edition)	Print version and Soft copy
Environmental Education- Teachers' Manual Classes VI – VIII (Revised edition)	Print version and Soft copy

Soft copies can be downloaded from the academic website: www.cbseacademic.in

The Board directs all School Heads to ensure that adequate copies of the books are made available in the library for easy access by teachers concerned.
