Background

The course of Urdu Elective is intended to give students a high level of competence in Urdu with an emphasis on the study of literary texts. The course will provide extensive exposure to a variety of rich texts of world literature as well as Indian writings in Urdu, including classics; develop sensitivity to the creative and imaginative use of Urdu and give them a taste for reading with delight and discernment. The course is primarily designed to equip the students to pursue higher studies in Urdu literature and Urdu language at the college level.

Objectives

The general objectives at this stage are:

i) to provide extensive exposure to a variety of writings in Urdu, including some classics to develop sensitivity to literary and creative uses of the language.

ii) to develop a taste for reading with sensitivity and pleasure.

iii) to critically examine a text and comment on different aspects.

iv) to develop proficiency in Urdu both in receptive and productive skills.

At the end of this course, the learner

i) relates to the details provided in the text, for example, how the details support a generalization or the conclusion either by classification or by contrast and comparison.

ii) comprehends details, locates and identifies facts, arguments, logical relationships, generalization, conclusion, in the texts.

iii) draws inferences, supplies missing details, predicts outcomes, grasps the significance of particular details and interprets texts.

iv) assesses and analyzes the point of view of the author.

v) infers the meanings of words and phrases from the context; differentiates between apparent synonyms.

vi) appreciates stylistic nuances, the lexical structure; its literal and figurative uses and analyses a variety of texts.

vii) identifies different styles of writing like humorous, satirical, contemplative, ironical and burlesque.

viii) can produce text-based writing (writing in response to questions or tasks based on prescribed as well as ‘unseen’ texts)

ix) develops the advanced skills of reasoning, inferring, analyzing, evaluating and creating.

x) develops familiarity with the poetic uses of language including features of the language through which artistic effect is achieved.
