This competition was open to students of all schools affiliated to CBSE. The registration and the topic were given each day just before the start of the session. The topics were factual for Day 1 or Day 2, so no plagiarism check was conducted. From Day 3 onwards plagiarism check was brought in place. Each day 68 winners were announced on the Facebook (https://www.facebook.com/pages/CBSE/254999324709439), this year being the 68th year of our country's independence.

From the day 1 to the day 6 of the series, 68 best entries were selected and prize money of Rs 5000/was announced for each of the winners. A total of 6X68=408 prizes were announced for 6 days. Payment to 344 winners has already been done.

On the 7th day, final 14winners were declared. On the basis of popular choice (number of likes on the Facebook having ensured the minimum plagiarism index), 6 winners were chosen. Remaining 8 winners were selected by the panel of experts comprising external committee members. These final fourteen winners were awarded a cash prize of Rs. 20,000/- and a Certificate of Excellence by hon'ble HRD minister in an award ceremony in Vigyan Bhavan on 14th of August , 2014.

These 6+ 8 winners along with 54 others, whose entries were found to be the best and were free of plagiarism, made it to the compilation of essays entitled CBSE Writing Series: Musings on Sri. Pingali Venkayya. The e mail IDs and mobile numbers of these 68 participants are given as Annexure.

A Certificate of Merit was given to the 68 winners of each day. All participants of the series have been given an online Certificate of Participation.
