Dated: 5th December, 2014

All Heads of Schools

Dear Principal,

Subject : CBSE Expression Series on 'Subramania Bharati: the poet patriot'.

Poetry is a result of and also results in the awakening of multiple emotions. These emotions when penned down beautifully can be a source of inspiration and motivation for others for generation to come. Several poets of pre-independence India have left indelible marks in the Indian history. These litterateurs are acknowledged for their immense contribution not only to Indian literature but also to India as a nation.

CBSE salutes one such great poet Mahakavi Subramania Bharati and announces one day Expression Series on 'Subramania Bharati: the poet and patriot' on 11th December, 2014. Subramania Bharati was a firm believer in the philosophy that all beings are one and the same, and in unity with God – therefore, they are all equal. Bharati, while fighting for India's freedom from British rule, simultaneously worked towards eradicating social problems such as religious and caste differences, superstitions, inequality between men and women, ignorance, and poverty.

This Expression series is open to all schools affiliated to CBSE or any recognised state board across the country. Students in three categories, namely i) Classes I-V, ii) Classes VI-VIII and iii) Classes IX-XII can submit their self-composed poems through the following modes :i) Online ii) Offline (links will be provided on 10th December 2014 on cbseacademic.in) iii) Whatsapp (see Annexure I). Topics shall be announced one day in advance.
