Interested senior teachers from CBSE affiliated schools can now take the qualifying screening test (Annexure I & II), so as to be trained as ASL-ETs at the above mentioned venues. The duration of training is 05 days (in continuation) respectively, and will be conducted by the experts from Trinity College, London.

The detailed procedure to take the screening test is annexed with this notification.

The last date for sending the scores has been extended from 10 October, 2013 to 30 October, 2013 for teachers who could not send in their scores in time.

Successful teachers who will be selected to attend the training at Pune and Lucknow will receive the invite for the training from the CBSE by end of October, 2013, so as to enable them to plan their travel, boarding and lodging. The expenditure on travel, boarding and lodging will be borne by respective schools or the selected teachers themselves.

It is once again reiterated that the ASL-ETs will be expected to cascade the training to teachers through a two day training module.
