Interested senior teachers from CBSE affiliated schools can now take the qualifying screening test (Annexure I & II), so as to be trained as ASL-ETs at the above mentioned venues. The duration of training is 05 days (in continuation) respectively, and will be conducted by the experts from Trinity College, London.

The detailed procedure to take the screening test is annexed with this notification.

The last date for sending the scores is 16 December, 2013.

Successful teachers who will be selected to attend the training at Guwahati and Bhubaneswar will receive the invite for the training from the CBSE by the third week of December, 2013, so as to enable them to plan their travel, boarding and lodging. The expenditure on travel, boarding and lodging will be borne by respective schools or the selected teachers themselves.

It is once again reiterated that the ASL-ETs will be expected to cascade the training to teachers through a two day training module.
