CBSE Skill Expo and Guidance Festival 2024 - Culmination Event

NEP 2020 has emphasized the importance of career guidance for school students and equips students with the tools they need for both personal and professional success. Career guidance is central to this vision, enabling students to make informed, confident decisions about their futures while ensuring they are prepared for the changing demands of the world of work. By promoting career exploration, vocational education, and skill development, career guidance fosters a generation of students who are ready to contribute meaningfully to society.

In this context, CBSE has organized 12 Regional Events of Skill Expo & Guidance Festival - 2024 at different locations across the country, wherein students of different schools showcased their Skill Exhibits on the identified themes. Sessions on career guidance were conducted by eminent experts during the Guidance Festivals for students.

The Culmination Event of the Skill Expo & Guidance Festival shall be held on 06th February 2025. Only the Position holders of 12 Regional Events of Skill Expo are eligible to participate in the Skill Expo culmination event. For Guidance Festival part, Principals of the affiliated schools are requested to attend the event with their teachers/students wherein career guidance sessions shall be delivered by the eminent experts.
