

Sample Marking Scheme
Senior School Certificate Examination 2018 - XII
PAINTING(THEORY) (History of India Art)

All the instructions mentioned in the question paper must be adhered by all the candidates.

1. This is a knowledge based and long answer type question. A candidate is expected to cover following points while describing the main features of the paintings of the Bengal School:
 - (1) The use of soft water colour in wash and tempera technique, which was a synthesis of the European and Japanese water colour techniques with a traditional Indian Tempera finish and which became the hall-mark of the Bengal School.
 - (2) The depiction of themes derived from the great Indian epics, mythology, classical literature, romantic past and even from the contemporary National Freedom Movement.
 - (3) The creation of mystic and mellow style by using gloomy colouring with diffused light background and absence of any dark line or tone which provide the experience of the astral world.
 - (4) The delineation of attenuated human figures with extra elongated limbs and tapering fingers, which reflect the influence of the Rajasthani, Mughal and Pahari miniatures. Hence emphasis on the European realism is terminated.
 - (5) The compositions are contemporary and most simplified and not like that of Ajanta, Rajasthani, Mughal or Pahari miniatures.
 - (6) The significance of line is re-established. The rendering of delicate, smooth, rhythmic and sinuous lines with overdue emphasis on drawing.
 - (7) The figures seem to have bathed in a luminous and timeless ambient.
 - (8) The foreign made drawing paper is used. 5 marks
