Q.25	'In the constant struggle for power, forts and fortified settlements of the Vijayanagara Empire played a significant role in resisting invasions.' Discuss. ANSWER: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The rulers of the Vijayanagara Empire created the cities with the main object of protection against invasions. They created first level of Fortification that encircled not only the city but also its agricultural hinterland and forests. The second line of fortification went around the inner core of the urban complex. A third line surrounded the royal center, within which each set of major buildings was surrounded by its own high walls.</li> <li>- The goal of medieval sieges was to starve the defenders to death. These sieges could last for several months, if not years. Typically, rulers attempted to prepare for such situations by constructing large granaries within fortified areas but the rulers of Vijayanagara through fortification managed to protect themselves through many attacks.</li> <li>- Visitors to the city, irrespective of their guilds and intentions had to travel through heavily fortified and protected environs before reaching the main urban core, passing through so much fortification also acted as a deterrent for those who conspired to invade the Vijayanagara empire.</li> </ul> (to be assessed as a whole)	3
Q.26	'The East India Company commissioned Buchanan with specific instructions about what he had to look for and what he had to record.' Justify the above statement with three suitable arguments. ANSWER: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Buchanan during his travel was always accompanied by specialists who helped in collecting data about the place and people. The East India Company required him to collect data so that decisions about where to invest and how to make a profit out of these places could be made.</li> <li>- The company looked for natural resources it could control and exploit and Buchanan observed stones, rocks, different strata, and layers of soil. He searched for minerals that were commercially valuable. All the data Buchanan collected about natural resources helped the East India Company make profits.</li> </ul>	3

	- When Buchanan wrote about a landscape he explained extensively how it could be transformed and made more productive like what crops could be cultivated, which trees to cut down, and which ones should be grown. All such information that the East India Company sought in order to make profits Buchanan with his observation and data collection was able to provide. -any other relevant point
Q.27	'The sepoys were the makers of their own rebellion.' Give three examples in support of the above statement. ANSWER: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Charles Ball noted that panchayats were a nightly occurrence in the Kanpur sepoy lines. Where Sepoy regularly planned and decided the actions that needed to be taken collectively for the rebellion to be successful.</li> <li>ii. To fight the British, leadership and organisation were required so the rebels turned to those who had been leaders before the British conquest. Like the Mughal emperor Bahadur Shah Zafar which shows it was the rebels who were planning the rebellion and worked to make it successful.</li> <li>iii. After the 7th Awadh Irregular Cavalry had refused to accept the new cartridges in, they wrote to the 48th Native Infantry that “they had acted for the faith and awaited the 48th’s orders”. Sepoys or their emissaries moved from one station to another and it establishes that there was communication between the sepoy lines of various cantonments which helped them to attack the British systematically.</li> </ol> (Award 1 mark each to above or any other relevant point) OR 'The national movement in the twentieth century drew its inspiration from the events of 1857.' Write the three learnings that the leaders of the 20th century freedom movement received from the events of 1857. ANSWER: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. to fight the British complete cooperation between Hindus and Muslims was necessary</li> <li>ii. participation was required from different groups of the society like the poor, peasants, and zamindars all of whom were involved in attacking the British rule</li> <li>iii. the revolt failed to spread to all areas which eventually helped the British to repress the rebellion.</li> </ol> (Award 1 mark each to above or any other relevant point)	3

The Therigatha

This unique Buddhist text, part of the Sutta Pitaka, is a collection of verses composed by bhikkhunis. It provides an insight into women's social and spiritual experiences. Punna, a dasi or slave woman, went to the river each morning to fetch water for her master's household. There she would daily see a Brahmana performing bathing rituals. One morning she spoke to him. The following are verses composed by Punna, recording her conversation with the Brahmana:

I am a water carrier:
Even in the cold
I have always gone down to the water
frightened of punishment
Or the angry words of high class women.
So what are you afraid of Brahmana,
That makes you go down to the water
(Though) your limbs shake with the bitter cold?

The Brahmana replied:
I am doing good to prevent evil;
anyone young or old
who has done something bad
is freed by washing in water.

Punna said:
Whoever told you
You are freed from evil by washing in the water?...
In that case all the frogs and turtles
Would go to heaven, and so would the water
snakes and crocodiles!
(Instead) Don't do that thing,
the fear of which
leads you to the water.
Stop now Brahmana!
Save your skin from the cold ...

34.1 The poem highlights the treatment meted out to the slaves in ancient India. Illustrate with one example. (1)

ANS - The slave seems to be scared of the abuses and punishments she may receive from the high-class women. It shows caste hierarchy and harsh treatment of the lower castes.

	34.2 Compare the teachings of Brahmanism and Buddhism that the poem tries to emphasise. (1) ANS – The Brahmana was shown to have been following the scriptural canon of morning ablutions to wash off his sins whereas the slave woman spoke about the Buddhist teaching of abstaining oneself from doing sins. 34.3 The poem finds mention in the Sutta Pitaka which literally means 'Basket of Discourse'. What does it say about the main content of this canon of Buddhist writings? (2) ANS – The entire verse is part of a story written in the Sutta Pitaka. It may be deduced that the Pitaka consists of Buddhist teachings based on stories and events.

I was committed to this idea, that every day in every station I would perform two cycles of optional prayer ... For several days ... I did not sleep on a leopard skin at night, I did not extend my feet in the direction of the blessed sanctuary of the revered saving master, and I did not turn my back towards him. I passed the days beneath the trees. On Thursday, the fourth of the blessed month of Ramzan, I attained the happiness of pilgrimage to the illuminated and the perfumed tomb ... With an hour of daylight remaining, I went to the holy sanctuary and rubbed my pale face with the dust of that threshold. From the doorway to the blessed tomb I went barefoot, kissing the ground. Having entered the dome, I went around the light-filled tomb of my master seven times... Finally, with my own hand I put the finest quality of itar on the perfumed tomb of the revered one, and having taken off the rose scarf that I had on my head, I placed it on the top of the blessed tomb ... 	4

	32.1 Chishti devotionism was expressed through ziyarat and qawaali. Identify what Jahanara performed. (1) ANS – She performed ziyarat by paying a visit to the tomb. 32.2 Explain why Jahanara referred to herself as a 'faqira' at the tomb. (1) ANS – Humility and asceticism are two important aspects of Sufism. Since Muinuddin Chishti was referred to as 'Garib Nawaz', Jahanara preferred to address herself as 'faqir' or one who lives a life of asceticism. 32.3 Illustrate with four examples Jahanara's absolute devotion and reverence for the 'revered one'. (2) ANS – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. not sleeping on a leopard skin</li> <li>ii. keeping her feet away from the direction of the sanctuary</li> <li>iii. did not turn her back to the tomb</li> <li>iv. spending days beneath the trees</li> <li>v. rubbing the threshold dust on her face</li> <li>vi. walking barefoot</li> <li>vii. kissed the ground</li> </ul> (any four to be evaluated)

Q.33	Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.	4
 “I believe separate electorates will be suicidal to the minorities” During the debate on 27 August 1947, Govind Ballabh Pant said: I believe separate electorates will be suicidal to minorities and will do them tremendous harm. If they are isolated forever, they can never convert themselves into a majority and the feeling of frustration will cripple them even from the very beginning. What is it that you desire and what is our ultimate objective? Do the minorities always want to remain as minorities or do they ever expect to form an integral part of a great nation and as a such guide and control its destinies? If they do, can they ever achieve that aspiration and that ideal if they are isolated from the rest of the community? I think it would be extremely dangerous for them if they were segregated from the rest of the community and kept aloof in an air-tight compartment where they would have to rely on others even for the air they breathe...The minorities if they are returned by separate electorates can never have any effective voice. CAD, VOL.II
33.1 What is the idea of separate electorates that Ballabh Pant was opposed to? (1)
ANS – When people in a region are separated according to religion, caste or gender and vote for the representative in their electorate.
33.2 Why does Ballabh Pant call separate electorates as 'suicidal to minorities'? (1)
ANS – Separate electorates could be suicidal for minorities according to Pant because he believed that minorities will never be able to integrate with the country.
33.3 Explain the counter arguments in favour of separate electorates as B. Pocker Bahadur put forward. (2)
ANS – According to Bahadur, separate electorates were the only way for minorities to claim a place in a country and make a safe space for themselves.
